An Executive Order does NOT write Law and was ONLY intended by the Founders to be a staff directive! There are over 2,200 Federal Agencies that answer to the Executive Branch Usurping Constitutional Liberty....

A Presidential Executive Order, whether Constitutional or not, is treated as law simply by its publication in the Federal Registry. Congress is by-passed. Here are just a few Executive Orders that would suspend the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. These Executive Orders have been on record for nearly 30 years and some could be enacted by the stroke of a Presidential pen:

- EXECUTIVE ORDER 10990 (John F. Kennedy): allows the government to take over all modes of transportation and control of highways and seaports.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER 10995 (John F. Kennedy): allows the government to seize and control the communication media.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER 10997 (John F. Kennedy): allows the government to take over all electrical power, gas, petroleum, fuels and minerals.

- EXECUTIVE ORDER 10998/11490 (John F. Kennedy/Nixon): the government to take over all food resources and farms.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER 11000/11490 (John F. Kennedy/Nixon): allows the government to mobilize civilians into work brigades under government supervision.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER 11001/11490 (John F. Kennedy/Nixon): allows the government to take over all health, education and welfare functions.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER 11002/11490 (John F. Kennedy/Nixon): designates the Postmaster General to operate a national registration of all persons.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER 11003/11490 (John F. Kennedy/Nixon): allows the government to take over all airports and aircraft, including commercial aircraft.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER 11004/11490 (John F. Kennedy/Nixon): allows the Housing and Finance Authority to relocate communities, build new housing with public funds, designate areas to be abandoned, and establish new locations for populations.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER 11005/11490 (John F. Kennedy/Nixon): allows the government to take over railroads, inland waterways and public storage facilities.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER 11051/11725/12148/12919 (John F. Kennedy/Nixon/Carter/Clinton): specifies the responsibility of the Office of Emergency Planning and gives authorization to put all Executive Orders into effect in times of increased international tensions and economic or financial crisis.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER 11310/1490 (Johnson/Nixon): grants authority to the Department of Justice to enforce the plans set out in Executive Orders, to institute industrial support, to establish judicial and legislative liaison, to control all aliens, to operate penal and correctional institutions, and to advise and assist the President.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER 11049/12553 (Kennedy): assigns emergency preparedness function to federal departments and agencies, consolidating 21 operative Executive Orders issued over a fifteen year period.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER 11921/11953 (Ford): allows the Federal Emergency Preparedness Agency to develop plans to establish control over the mechanisms of production and distribution, of energy sources, wages, salaries, credit and the flow of money in U.S. financial institution in any undefined national emergency. It also provides that when a state of emergency is declared by the President, Congress cannot review the action for six months.

- EXECUTIVE ORDER 12148 (Carter): created the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) that is to interface with the Department of Defense for civil defense planning and funding. An "emergency czar" was appointed. FEMA has only spent about 6 percent of its budget on national emergencies, the bulk of their funding has been used for the construction of secret underground facilities to assure continuity of government in case of a major emergency, foreign or domestic.
- Executive Order 12314 (Reagan) – Sets up 10 Federal Regional Councils appointed by the president
- EXECUTIVE ORDER 12656/13074 (Reagan/Clinton): appointed the National Security Council as the principal body that should consider emergency powers. This allows the government to increase domestic intelligence and surveillance of U.S. citizens and would restrict the freedom of movement within the United States and granted the government the right to isolate large groups of civilians. The National Guard could be federalized to seal all borders and take control of U.S. air space and all ports of entry. Many of the figures in the Iran-Contra scandal were part of this emergency contingent, including Marine Colonel Oliver North.
- Executive Order 12803 (Bush Sr.): Infrastructure Privatization puts the US government infrastructure up for sale.
- Obama Order Amends 12425: Interpol Diplomatic Immunity
- Obama Order 13514: Empowers the EPA to implement “Cap and Tax”
